'IFFAT AL THUNAYAN An Arabian Queen by Joseph A. Kéchichian

'Iffat Al Thunayan, spouse of the late King Faysal bin 'Abdul 'Aziz Al Sa'ud (r. 1964–1975), was a pillar of the ruling Al Sa'ud family. Born in Istanbul to an uprooted Sa'udi family, she returned to the Kingdom in 1932. 'Iffat used her influence to infiltrate progressive ideas into the Kingdom, including significant strides in education for both boys and girls as well as advances in health care. An astute observer and a doer par excellence, Queen 'Iffat left her mark on the contemporary history of the Al Sa'ud, as she protected and empowered her kin. She raised a formidable family, listened carefully, guided conversations as necessary, recommended policies to her husband and, after the latter was assassinated, to her brothers-in-law who succeeded him.

BEYOND NIHILISM:

Imperfection on the move

by Bart Nooteboom

How to escape from nihilistic despair: the loss of faith in absolutes of God, the True, the Good and the Beautiful? Following Nietzsche, we might be glad to be rid of them, rejoicing in ongoing effort to learn and create, even if, or perhaps because, we never achieve perfection. In other words: imperfection on the move.
